3. For which wounds or sorrows have you started to lose hope for healing?
4. What is the truth that God is inviting you to proclaim in response to feelings of hopelessness?

LECTIO DIVINA

"Cure the sick, raise the dead." – Matthew 10:7-8

JOURNAL QUESTIONS

1. How have you encountered the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick?
2. Where in my life do I experience hopelessness?
3. What obstacles in my life and heart make it hard for me to experience hope?
4. What does the Holy Spirit need to remind me of in this season of life?

QUOTES TO PONDER

"Every temptation comes down to this one final temptation, it is the temptation to believe that the satisfaction of the deepest desires of our heart is totally up to us."

— Fr. Albacete

Healing and miracles often increase our hope, but they are not the basis for our hope. We have another more trustworthy, rock-solid foundation for our hope: the person, Jesus Christ, who describes himself as "the resurrection and the life." He told Martha, anyone who believes in him will never die (see Jn11:25-26). Holding firm to this hope, we are promised a share in his life. All of us who believe in the Resurrection are already "raised to life" This is our hope.
