

HERSTORY: MARY MAGDALENE

Group Questions

1. What struck you from this week's episode?
2. What would you like God to resurrect in your life this Easter season?
3. How does Jesus desire to be "Rabboni" (teacher) for you this Easter and teach you a new way to live?
4. In your life, what desires need to be named, what sin needs to be named, what sorrow needs to be named?

Lectio Divina

"Jesus said to her, 'Mary.' She turned toward him and cried out in Aramaic, 'Rabboni!' (which means 'Teacher')." - John 20:11-18

Journal Questions

1. Have you allowed yourself to hear the voice of the Lord, call you by name, especially in areas where you are broken, ashamed, and sinful?
2. Imagine yourself in the garden with Jesus. As He calls you by name and asks you 'why are you crying?', what would you like to talk to Jesus about?

Quote to Ponder

"Most of all I imitate the behavior of Mary Magdalene, for her amazing—or, rather, loving—audacity which delighted the heart of Jesus, has cast its spell upon mine."
- St. Therese of Lisieux
