

SEASON 14 — EPISODE 11

A Time of Renewal (Holy Week: Focus)

GROUP QUESTIONS

1. Where in your life are you seeking glory?
2. Do I live like the Resurrection is a reality?
3. When do you lose hope?
4. Does the story you tell yourself about God align with God's story (the Paschal Mystery)?
5. What are the places of my heart that I don't believe the narrative (of the Paschal Mystery)?

JOURNAL QUESTIONS

1. What was hard for me?
2. What were the graces and mercies I experienced?
3. How have I grown?
4. How can I make this week holy?
5. What wounds do I bring to Jesus? What wounds do I simply "stare at"?

QUOTE TO PONDER

"How are wounds made glorious? By our deciding what we will do with them. Our Jesus turned his wounds into beauty, and there is not one of us who would say, "Oh, this should not be in eternity." Our poor hearts thrill to the verity that he is always showing his wounds to the Father on our behalf. They are transformed now in glory. Likewise, there is a transformation that we too can make of our own little everyday wounds which sometimes seem so deep and so big and so insufferable to us. How do we transform them into glory? By looking at Jesus, by remembering his suffering which was turned into glory."

LECTIO DIVINA

"Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit." — John 12:24
