

SEASON 14 — EPISODE 12

Living in the Resurrection

GROUP QUESTIONS

1. How are you still living in winter during the spring of Easter?
2. Do you know how to practice Resurrection?
3. In what ways do you believe your dreams rely on you for their fulfillment?
4. How do you intellectualize or explain away your dreams?

JOURNAL QUESTIONS

1. What hopes have been dashed by the sorrowful mysteries of my life?
2. Where are the places that I am afraid to hope?
3. Do I believe my dreams are doomed to fail?
4. What anxieties in my heart are preventing me from hoping?

QUOTE TO PONDER

“Yet the same women who bore this darkness in their hearts tell us something quite extraordinary. When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. This is the Pasch of Christ, the revelation of God’s power: the victory of life over death, the triumph of light over darkness, the rebirth of hope amid the ruins of failure. It is the Lord, the God of the impossible, who rolled away the stone forever. Even now, he opens our hearts, so that hope may be born ever anew. We too, then, should “look up” to him.” — (Pope Francis, Easter Vigil Homily)

LECTIO DIVINA

“When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back.”
