Leading with God Given Authority

GROUP QUESTIONS

1. How often do you think God is holding out on you?
2. How do I lose sight of God-given authority by seeking out worldly influence?
3. What accountability do I need to choose surrendered, God-given authority over worldly influence?
4. When have you felt safe under God's authority?
5. How do you need to grow and mature to better lead and serve others?

JOURNAL QUESTIONS

1. How have I abdicated my God-given authority?
2. When do I perceive surrender to be a form of defeat?
3. How has authority been misused in my life?
4. How is God inviting me to stay with Him in faithfulness and obedience?
5. Where do I need to be both honoring and honest?

QUOTE TO PONDER

“The fourth commandment opens the second table of the Decalogue. It shows us the order of charity. God has willed that, after him, we should honor our parents to whom we owe life and who have handed on to us the knowledge of God. We are obliged to honor and respect all those whom God, for our good, has vested with his authority.” — (CCC 2197)

LECTIO DIVINA

“Only be careful, and watch yourselves closely so that you do not forget the things your eyes have seen or let them fade from your heart as long as you live. Teach them to your children and to their children after them.” — Deuteronomy 4:9
