

SEASON 14 — EPISODE 7

A Time of Renewal Lent Week 2: In Conversation with Jesus)

GROUP QUESTIONS

1. What does it look like for you to be a new creation in Christ?
2. Have you ever felt like God contradicts Himself? How did He resolve that apparent contradiction?
3. What littleness in your life do you tend to hide and run away from? How can you be more open with the Lord in your littleness?
4. What holds me back from entering into prayer honestly or making a confession regularly?

JOURNAL QUESTIONS

1. Am I in conversation with God or in a monologue with myself?
2. How can I create more space for dialogue with God?
3. What Isaacs (idols) do I have?
4. How do I self-sabotage in order to confirm my deepest fears?

QUOTE TO PONDER

“Then, a word about the Tabor Gospel. I was newly impressed by the fact that Moses and Elijah were in conversation with Jesus. Let us be occupied always in being in conversation with Jesus. We know the deepest conversations are the wordless ones. We love that simple and profound word of Pope Saint John Paul II, “Let Jesus be the one to whom you talk the most.””
