

SEASON 10 EP.12

Advent: Hope In His Love

- St. Catherine of Siena -

GROUP QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you from today's episode?
2. Does your life, your marriage, your family, your church, or your small group proclaim good news to the world? And if not, why? What needs to be redeemed or restored?
3. Are you living a life rooted in hope? Where can you be light in the darkness for others?
4. How can you make room for Christ this Advent season?

LECTIO DIVINA

"The spirit of the sovereign Lord is on me because the Lord has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the broken hearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners. To proclaim the year of the Lord's favor and the day of vengeance of our God. To comfort all who mourn and provide for those who grieve in Zion. To bestow on them a crown of beauty, instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning, and a garment of praise, instead of a spirit of despair. They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the Lord for the display of his splendor." - Isaiah 61:1-3

JOURNAL QUESTIONS

1. How do you need "the Madman" to love you madly in the season of Advent this year?
2. Are there any particular fasts the Lord may be calling you to this Advent to create room for him in your heart?
3. What does the Holy Spirit want to birth or make new in you during this season of Advent?

QUOTE TO PONDER

"The love of Christ embraces all without exception. Fire of love, crazy over what You have made. Oh, divine Madman." - St. Catherine of Siena
